"Freedom"

Value Freedom.

Ambling leisurely across the hills.
Long walks through the woods,
Under the shade of ancient oaks,
Eating delicious juicy hand-picked berries.

Freedom from the terrible war -
Ruthless tanks on gritty ground,
Enemy lines filled with military might,
Everlasting gun fire through day and night.
Dreaming of dancing with friends all night long,
Of parties and presents and play.
My life could be different, if not for them.
