"Freedom"

I am freedom and as free as can be,
You should know that everyone has a right to me.
I give you the right to move to speak to act,
But use it carefully and take that for a fact.
I could be dangerous, but it depends who you are,
Because if you use me badly, you will not go very far.
I am not in prisons with bolted doors,
I am not in countries where there is war.
Birds in cages that is not I,
I open the gate and let them fly.
I do not mind what race or gender,
Discrimination, he is the offender.
Children have me to play and to learn,
Starve and neglect would give me concern.
I am freedom, with me there's no strife
I am freedom, I am Life.
